MEMPHIS NONPROFIT, AMBASSADORS OF MEMPHIS, INVITES YOU TO THEIR DEBT FREEDOM STARTS TODAY MOTIVATION SESSION

Memphis, TN -- The current economic climate has forced many to take a closer look at their financial situation. Although an increase in cash flow would help, for many that possibility is out of reach. However, we all have control over how much money we send out the door. A Biblical principle often overlooked is to stay out of debt and owe no one anything. That concept seems impossible today, but it is very achievable. The hardest part of doing anything is making the quality decision to take the first step. Ambassadors of Memphis, Inc. want to motivate you to take the first step toward debt freedom with our "Debt Freedom Starts Today Motivation Session". We believe that becoming debt free is an important key to financial success for individuals and business owners. Join us March 26, 2011, 10:00am at the Benjamin L. Hooks Central Library located at 3030 Poplar Ave., where you will learn what it takes to start the journey to financial freedom from Travis Moody, West Tennessee Area Director for Crown Financial Ministries. To demonstrate that we are serious about providing that motivation; we are asking all participants to bring any debt or bill that they have, that can be paid in full with $500 or LESS, to the session. All the debts will be placed in a drawing where Debt Freedom will start that day for one blessed person. If you are interested in attending this motivation session, please go to the Upcoming Events page at www.ambassadorsofmemphis.org to register. The event is FREE however, space is limited. Its 2011 and we declare that Debt Freedom Starts Today.
