

May 16, 2010 - Memphis, TN

“Tough times don’t last. Tough people do.” Faith-based motivational speaker KEN BROWN provides encouragement through turmoil by way of example. Coming from difficult times, he immersed himself in what was possible by faith and not by sight. Under the most challenging circumstances, Ken’s family instilled values of destiny, prosperity, and tenacity. Ken’s book Leap of Faith shares his personal story of triumph. He teaches how to build a strong work ethic, reside in victory, and import choices, challenge, and change.

Ambassadors of Memphis believes in order for real success to flow; Biblical principles must be in place and modeled. Ken will be featured on Live @ 9 with Alex Coleman & Marybeth Conley on June 7, 2010.

Ken Brown will also participate in an author event – 5:30-7:30 p.m. on June 7th:
Borders Books and Music, 6685 Poplar Ave, Suite 110, Germantown, TN 38138

For more information about Ken Brown: www.kenbrowninternational.com

For more about Ambassadors of Memphis www.ambassadorsofmemphis.org

5050 Polar Ave., Suite 2416

Memphis, TN 38157

p 901.301.5560

f 901.685.5825